

Vendor: Apple

Exam Code: 9L0-838

Exam Name: Logic Pro 9 Level One End User Exam

Version: DEMO

QUESTION 1

Hotspot question

In the image below, click the part of the waveform that has been time-compressed.

Answer:

QUESTION 2

Adjust Tempo using Beat Detection

Resulting Tempo: 136 bpm

Advanced Options

Create Tempo Change: ☒ Globally
☐ At Selection Start and End
☐ At Selection Start Only

☐ Nudge Regions to Beat

Prelisten Cancel OK

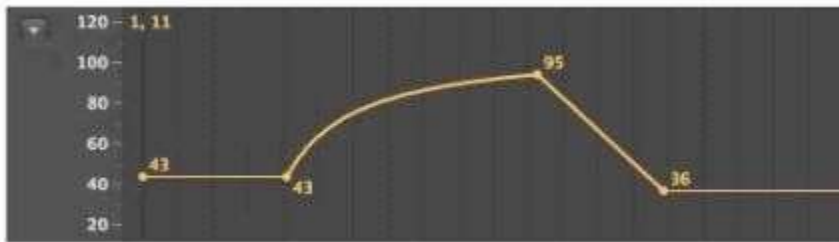

Which of the following actions would bring up the dialog shown above?

- A. Control-Option-click a region.
- B. Select a region and press the Flex button in the Toolbar.
- C. Select a region and open the Tempo List.
- D. Select a region and in the main menu bar, choose Options > Tempo > Adjust Tempo using Beat Detection.

Answer: D

QUESTION 3

In Hyper Draw, how do you create a curved line like the one shown above?

- A. Shift-drag the line.
- B. Double-click the line and move the mouse up and down.
- C. Draw the curve with the Pencil tool.
- D. Control-Shift-drag the line.

Answer: D

QUESTION 4

Why would you use the Hyper Editor? (Select all that apply)

- A. To create drum sequences.
- B. To add or edit MIDI control-change data.
- C. To create more apparent loudness in audio files.

Answer: AB

QUESTION 5

What does the yellow highlight around this region represent?

- A. The region is muted.
- B. The region is soloed.
- C. The region is in Flex mode.
- D. The region is quantized.
- E. The region has yet to be analyzed for transients.

Answer: B

QUESTION 6

What is the red area called in the above image?

- A. A Cycle area
- B. An Autopunch area
- C. A Skip cycle
- D. A Marquee Stripe

Answer: B